

ST DAVID'S DAY

WALES IS THE AREA ON THE SMALL MAP SHADED IN GREEN. WALES IS A PART OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

St David's Day is on March 1st

St David is the patron saint of Wales. He founded a monastery (a place where a group of religious people live) and helped to spread Christianity.

The Welsh flag shows the Red dragon.

Daffodils are traditional Welsh flowers and rugby is the national game.

The lady is dressed in a traditional Welsh costume

(For more information about St David's day, access: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Saint_David's_Day)

WELSH LADY

DAFFODILS

RUGBY